

Leeanne Walters Director

Leeanne Walters is the NZ Director of Wilson Consulting Group and has taken on the ownership and responsibility for leading and supporting the growth of the collective group of Wilson companies in New Zealand, namely the Wilson Consulting Group, Global Safety Index, CareerBuilders and Assess Control Assure.

Leeanne brings more than 17 years of executive and senior leadership experience in Health, Safety, Quality, Environment, Risk, Business Systems and Sustainability to this role. Most recently Leeanne was the General Manager of Health, Safety, Quality, Environment and Sustainability (HSQES) at Fulton Hogan and was a member of the New Zealand Executive Team – reporting to the Chief Executive Officer. In this role Leeanne coached a large team of HSQES professionals and led the business through a step change in its Health and Safety culture; she now wishes to help a wider group of companies to do the same.

Leeanne is passionate about working with executive leadership teams to understand their current health and safety performance, culture and leadership capability and developing strategies and solutions for continuous improvement. Supported by her ability to quickly establish trusting relationships and her experience in completing ethnographic studies and cultural mapping; this allows her to gain greater insights to develop clear road maps for culture change. Leeanne is a well-respected coach and mentor, who supports several Health, Safety and Environmental professionals as well as women aspiring to senior leadership positions. She is also an Inaugural member of the General Managers H&S Forum in NZ.

In addition to Leeanne’s practical experience, she holds a Bachelor of Law majoring in Law and Psychology and is supported by Occupational Safety and Health qualifications, is a Graduate of Situational Leadership II, Negotiation Skills, ICAM and TSI amongst many other industry certification and professional development achievements.

Leeanne resides in Auckland with her husband and two children, and devotes her spare time to her family, friends and enjoying her rural lifestyle and travel. Leeanne also volunteers on two boards, looking after the specific portfolios of Health & Safety and Sustainability.

Leeanne will be pleased to assist you and your organisation with any Safety, Health, Wellbeing and Sustainability challenges as she continues the Wilson Consulting Group story across New Zealand. Please feel free to contact her on +64 27 836 6471 or at leeanne.walters@wilsonconsultinggroup.com.au.
